GAMBLERS ALLIED WITH CHURCHMEN AT RACING HEARING

Clergymen Urged to "Soak It" to Track Champions in Albany by Gentry With Large Diamond Headlights.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 20.-The Assembly chamber last night suggested the clubhouse at Sheepshead Bay during the running of the Suburban. For four hours, while a heavy snow fell outside, 500 of the most prominent horsemen in the United States sat in the "seats of the mighty" DANCE UPON SNOW and listened to their own champions and a score of ministers and reform agents dispute as to the merits of the bills which propose to put a stop agents dispute as to the merits of the bills which propose to put a stop

The side of the racing men was the most popular of the two. Almost every Senator and Assemblyman lined up with the racing men and gave the cold shoulder to the reform contingent who want to stop betting. All the speakers against the bills were cheered and encouraged by other means, while the ministers and reform agents were listened to in

The depositors in the National Bank of North America are very well satisfied with the way Mr. Hanna has handled his re-eivership. They take no stock in the reports that would make Morse out a martyr to the policies of President Rooseveit.

"Charles W. Morse," said one of the creditors to-day, "is no martyr. He is a high financier who has overplayed himself. Nobody is trying to crush him. But a lot of people are making strenuous efforts to get what he owes them and if he is crushed in the process it is his own fault."

Arthur J. Minaugh, of No. 317 East Nineteenth street, testified that he spends the summers at Stevensville, Sullivan County, but knew Mrs. Delaney among the guests of his hotel for five years, and-had never seen her act in an improper way.

"I saw her at the famous barn dance," said Minaugh. "I saw her dancing with Eddie Scully. She was not intoxicated, but he was. They
